eHealthcare Leadership Gold Award for Best Overall Internet Site Powered by Kentico CMS

Nashua, New Hampshire, USA, March 7, 2012 – Kentico Software (www.kentico.com), the Web content management system vendor announced Scott & White Healthcare received the Gold award in the 2011 eHealthCare Leadership Award for the Best Overall Internet site in hospitals under 200 beds.

The 12th annual eHealthCare Leadership Awards highlight the Internet's role in achieving an organization's business objectives and recognize the hard work that has gone into creating outstanding health care Web sites. McLane Children's Hospital Scott & White website (<http://www.swchildrens.org>) delivered by Jack Morton Worldwide (<http://www.jackmorton.com/>) and powered by Kentico received the Gold Award for best Overall Internet site in a hospital under 200 beds.

"The McLane Children's Hospital is a 64-bed inpatient facility located in Temple, Texas with advanced surgical suites, a pediatric emergency department, broad-based imaging, endoscopic capacities and many specialty physicians. These services are important for local residents as we are the smallest city in the country to have a free-standing children's hospital. The site helps families to find essential resources and positively reflects the hospital to the broader community." said Steven Widmann, Director of Marketing Web Services at Scott & White Healthcare.

"We greatly appreciate eHealthCare Leadership Award as it confirms our continued long-term commitment to deliver only the highest quality web projects." said Matthew Galindo, Director of Technology at Jack Morton Worldwide. "Kentico has everything we could want in a CMS and more. Its flexibility gives our developers the ability to make websites easy to edit for our clients all the while still giving us full control of the look and feel of the site. We don't have to sacrifice our design and we can keep a 'complicated' site easy for our clients to work in and update."

"This is another fantastic example of the outstanding work delivered by a partner and continues to show our strong commitment to empowering our customers and partners", said Eric Webb, President of US Sales and Operations.
