FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
July 8, 2008

July 8, 2008 – DiscountASP.NET, a leader in advanced Windows hosting services, and Kentico, a content management system application software company, partner to provide a robust ASP.NET CMS application for the Windows 2008 hosting platform.

Under the terms of the agreement, DiscountASP.NET customers can receive a 15% discount for the Kentico CMS for ASP.NET application. Customers can redeem this offer by using a promotion code available in the DiscountASP.NET Control Panel Marketplace.

"Although we thoroughly test our application internally, it is always important to experience deploying and using our cms application just as one of our customers would with a live hosting partner." said Petr Palas, CEO of Kentico. "With our partnership with DiscountASP.NET, we were able to test our CMS application on a live Windows 2008 hosting platform before we officially released our newest version."

"DiscountASP.NET is an early adopter of new Microsoft technology and we officially launched Windows 2008 shared hosting in February 2008." said DiscountASP.NET's Vice President of Marketing, Takeshi Eto. "Preparing for new hosting technology is important for us, but we believe it is equally important to work with our partners to help them prepare as well. I am happy to announce that the DiscountASP.NET Windows 2008 hosting platform is fully compatible with the Kentico CMS for ASP.NET application."

About Kentico:

Kentico offers a robust content management system designed for ASP.NET developers. Their Kentico CMS for ASP.NET application offers a rich set of site management features such as WYSIWYG editing, dynamic site maps, customizable workflow and versioning, content scheduling, and file management.
