Kentico Makes EContent 100 List of Companies
That Matter Most in Digital Content Industry

Second appearance by fast-growing CMS company

Bedford, NH – November 15, 2017 – Kentico Software, maker of both premise- and cloud-based CMS platforms, announced today that it has been named in the EContent 100 List of Companies That Matter Most in the Digital Content Industry. Now in its 17th year, the list is compiled by some of the most respected analysts, editors, and journalists covering the space.

This marks the sixth major distinction earned by Kentico this year. Others include:

- Top 20 List of CMS Solutions by the Capterra community
- A 2017 Top Rated CMS Platform by Software Users on TrustRadius
- "High Performer" on G2Crowd's GridSM for Web Content Management
- List of SaaS 1000 Companies
- Runner-up for "Best Cloud CMS" in CMS Critic Web Awards 2017

"This type of recognition validates the fact that Kentico is solving business problems for a broad spectrum of customers from small businesses to midsize companies to Fortune 500 and Global Fortune 500 corporations," said Kentico Founder and CEO, Petr Palas. "Today, our CMS solutions are more enterprise-ready than ever before, and as a result, we are achieving major sales wins in North America, EMEA, and Asia Pacific."

"Congratulations to all the companies named to the 17th Annual EContent 100," added Theresa Cramer, Editor, EContent. "The names on this list are as varied as the digital media industry itself, but one of this year's standout trends was the importance of artificial intelligence. Companies in every category are finding new and innovative ways to use AI to improve their products and the end-user experience. After seeing what so many of the EContent 100 companies are up to, the judges and I can't wait to see what 2018 brings."
