COUNTRY MUSIC HALL OF FAME

The world's most extensive repository of country music artifacts. This museum is dedicated to preserving & honoring country music legends throughout time (3 min walk).
<https://www.countrymusicHalloffame.org/>

PRINTER'S ALLEY

Printer's Alley was once home to Nashville's largest newspapers, the Tennessean & the Nashville Banner, in 1915. Not too long after, the alley transformed into a showcase for singers & songwriters in the 1940's & was Nashville's center of nightlife entertainment. Today, the nightclubs are the descendants of the saloons, speakeasies, & clubs which developed into the entertainment district still known as Printers Alley. This is one of Nashville's most popular destinations with unique speakeasies & restaurants. Step back in time to Printer's Alley on your next visit!

HIDDEN LIVE MUSIC

Not feeling the bustling Honky-Tonks on Broadway to enjoy live performances? Nashville has several noteworthy hidden gems that offer a more intimate live music experience. You might want to tune in for these.

3RD & LINDSLEY

3rd & Lindsley is a staple to the Music City. Enjoy good music, good food, & good friends at this hidden gem nestled in the heart of SoBro. With live music seven nights a week, this venue has all that Broadway has to offer, only with a more intimate atmosphere. You can also enjoy local events such as CMA & Americana festivals at 3rd & Lindsley. But be sure to catch a Monday-night show with the Grammy-winning swing band, The Time Jumpers, during your next visit. (13 min walk)

<https://www.3rdandlindsley.com/>

THE BASEMENT

Miss going to crowded basement parties like you did when you were younger? Well, we got the perfect hidden gem for you. Only this time, you get to experience some of Nashville's best up & coming artists. Let us tell you about one of Nashville's most beloved hidden live music spots, The Basement. This classic Nashville club puts you just inches away from your favorite bands. (6 min drive)

<https://www.thebasementnashville.com/>

THE LISTENING ROOM

The best sounding room in Nashville is only a short walk away. Experience the hits you hear on the radio in a way you've never heard them before. The Listening Room prides themselves on original music performances with two live shows a night. If you come during the week, you will enjoy an acoustic setting featuring anyone from up-and-coming songwriters to number one hit songwriters. The Listening Room weekend also showcases local Nashville bands & popular national performances. (7 min walk)

<https://www.listeningroomcafe.com/>

THE LOCAL

Looking for that hometown feel but with good music & great food? The Local is a must-go for you. Located in Nashville's chic West End neighborhood, experience a laid back & welcoming environment while enjoying live music – a true & genuine Nashville experience. Since opening in 2017, The Local has built a reputation for showcasing the best live & local artists in the Music City while providing a cozy, hometown environment. (11 min drive)

NASHVILLE HOT CHICKEN

Nashville's iconic Hot Chicken is a staple to the Music City. Millions of people around the world travel to Nashville not just for the live music & Honky-Tonk's, but to try the blistering hot chicken.

HATTIE B'S

Hattie B's is new to the Hot Chicken game by opening their doors in 2012. Since then, Hattie B's name has been associated with Nashville Hot Chicken, especially with their fiery heat levels. The heat levels include Southern, Mild, Medium, Hot!, Damn Hot!!, & Shut the Cluck Up!!!. There's no doubt your taste buds will be sizzling here. But not to worry, Hattie B's offers sweet tea & a whole beer menu to simmer down. Let's not forget that Hattie B's serves desserts to cool down the heat. Their famous banana pudding is a fan favorite as well as their peach cobbler. (10 min walk)

<https://hattieb.com/>

PARTY FOWL

Party Fowl offers a full-service menu compared to the other Hot Chicken spots but, they still offer some of Nashville's best Hot Chicken. Heat levels include Southern Fried, Mild, Medium, Nashville Hot, & Poultrygeist – get it? Party Fowl not only specializes in Nashville's staple, but also local beer & boozy slushies. If you need to cool down after trying their Hot Chicken, their famous boozy slushies will do just that. (3 min drive)

<https://partyfowl.com/>

PRINCE'S HOT CHICKEN SHACK

Of course, we are going to recommend the "OG" Hot Chicken shack that created this iconic dish. It would be shameful not to, especially after telling the story behind Prince's. Prince's has been serving Hot Chicken for over 70 years now since Thorton Prince perfected the recipe. André Prince Jeffries, Thorton's niece, was passed the torch to carry on the family tradition of serving the legendary dish. You can order Prince's Hot Chicken in three flavors mild, medium, or hot – & it comes with white bread & pickles. (11 min)

WINERIES

When you think of Nashville, you immediately think of Honky-Tonks, Broadway, & live music. Wineries probably don't come to mind when you are planning a visit to the Music City. But Nashville has several hidden gems that are off Honky-Tonk Highway, including wineries.

ARRINGTON VINEYARDS & WINERY

Co-owned by Country Music artist, Kix Brooks, Arrington Vineyards is Tennessee's premier winery. Located less than 30 miles south of Nashville, Arrington had a stunning 95-acre property including 16 acres of vineyards, five tasting rooms, breath-taking views, picnic areas, & live music on the weekends. Not to mention food truck Fridays. What more could you wine for? (34 min drive)

<https://arringtonvineyards.com/>

BELLE MEADE WINERY

Originally known as the premier thoroughbred racing & breeding farm in the South for more than a century, Belle Meade was the epicenter of hospitality during the 1800s. The historic property used to be home to several of the best racing horses in history & always included homemade wine for guests. To this day, Belle Meade Winery takes pride in preserving Southern hospitality & continues their tradition of gourmet wine. Sitting on 32 acres of stunning views, Belle Meade Winery is open seven days a week for an extraordinary experience. (21 min drive)

<https://visitbellemeade.com/>

CITY WINERY

Within walking distance from us, City Winery provides a unique culinary & cultural experience for their guests, who appreciate wine, music, & food. City Winery offers intimate concerts, food, wine seminars, private events, upscale dining, & a fully functioning winery. At City Winery, they bring the wine country experience to the Music City, one sip at a time. (11 min walk)
